"Be Ye Also Ready"

Dearest Ones,

I am coming to you today with a message of love, acceptance, and encouragement. You have no idea how rapidly the work is going to go to every nation, language, tongue, and people, now that the truth is known about my closing work in the heavenly Sanctuary. Many people are ready and longing for this light, and will accept it and move quickly to call upon me to cleanse them and get them ready for my coming. Now that the light is available, I will bring the people to it. Therefore the message for today is, "be ye also ready."

The time has come for the combination of all the prophecies of Scripture to be fulfilled. The world has been waiting for an understanding of the gospel that carries them all the way through the cleansing. No true Christian wants to keep sinning and to continue seeing inconsistencies in their lives. But until the understanding of the cleansing of the inner life, no one knew how to control the negative thought processes that would be brought up by the evil one. These have been covered by my grace and my death for each person, but when I step out of the Most Holy Place that will no longer be true. My intercession for the sinner then ceases, and my blood is no longer applied for the suppliant. Therefore, sin must be cleansed away during probationary time.

Now let me explain to you the goal of my intercession during the cleansing time. I will gradually bring up to your memory the areas of your life where you have made a decision that was not in agreement with me and my principles of righteousness. For example, if a child has been abused by a parent, the future attitudes against people who are perceived to have the same effect upon their emotions as did the abuser remain in the memories and can create roots of bitterness that last a lifetime unless cleansed and blotted out. The goal of the cleansing is to replace old sinful habits of thinking and reacting to life's experiences with new, cleansed ways of thinking and acting that are in harmony with me and my perfect life. In order to accomplish this, each person who is cleansed must have a personal, ongoing relationship with me, whereby I can infuse my thoughts, feelings, and reactions to temptation into the mind, and a complete change can then take place which will prepare the recipient for heaven. Then and only then will a person be ready for citizenship in heaven. This experience is unique to those who live through to my coming. Those who are laid away by death, must have given their life completely to me and have come into agreement and obedience with me on every known sin. But no sin of any kind can be in the heart and mind of those who will be translated without seeing death. So the goal is the same for all the saved - to be in complete harmony and agreement with me on every known sin. The difference is that for those who are translated, everything will have been revealed, confessed, forsaken, and blotted out.

Therefore, it is essential for those who desire to be translated that they cooperate with me in the final cleansing and blotting out of every sin as I reveal it to them in their daily life experiences. I am no respecter of persons. I close the door on no one. It is up to each person to decide how far they will go with me in this process. But I have one caution for everyone who hears or reads this message: do not think that you can decide for yourself whether you want to go through the cleansing process. If you hear my voice calling you, do not harden your hearts. [Ps. 95:7, 8.] Those who refuse my invitation I will see as those who refuse the invitation to the wedding, or the man who came to the wedding feast without the wedding garment. These will be cast out where there will be weeping and gnashing of teeth. But those who accept the process of cleansing will be counted worthy of not only eternal life, but to be among the 144,000 who will be around my throne forever and follow me wherever I go, because they have washed their robes and made them white in the blood of the Lamb! Lovingly, Jesus.
